

Free Jazz Night to launch quarterly events at The Dolphin.

A free jazz night at the Dolphin pub will launch Sydenham Arts' quarterly events at the pub.

The launch, on December 10, will see The Dolphin filled with the soothing sounds of local jazz singer Harriet Eaves who has performed to sell-out audiences all over the world. In addition to it being the launch of the quarterly events it is the launch of Sydenham Arts' partnership with The Dolphin pub.

Harriet's critically acclaimed second album 'The One For Me' reached the Top Ten in the iTunes Jazz Chart in 2014. A regular in the London jazz scene, the singer has performed at many prestigious venues such as The Hippodrome Leicester Square, The Pheasantry, Toulouse Lautrec and Jazz After Dark with renowned pianist Nathan Jarvis.

With influences including Ella Fitzgerald, Billie Holiday and Amy Winehouse, Harriet has developed her own unique vocal style which is captivating audiences and critics alike.

Head on down to the Dolphin on 10 December for a memorable night of jazz.

Harriet Eaves is performing for free at The Dolphin, Sydenham Road, SE26 on December 10 from 8pm.

<http://www.sydenhamarts.co.uk/jazz/>

ENDS

Sydenham Arts is Sainsbury's Local Charity of the Year.
Find out more about Sydenham Arts at www.sydenhamarts.co.uk

Follow on Twitter: @Sydartsfest
Registered Charity Number 1161590

Notes

1. Sydenham Arts has been delivering cultural activities and events since 2008 and have a proven track record of staging events that attract audience attendances from diverse communities – including an annual summer festival as well as free events such as Arts in the Park, film screenings and Street Celebrations.